Mangled Remains of Two Men
Divided in Two Coffins.
SPOKANE, March 23.—The dispute over the remains of
two men who died in the powder mill explosion at Wallace, Idaho, last week has been settled by placing portions of the remains in two coffins. Each widow takes one. Mrs. Pineo sends her casket to Seattle for burial, and Mrs. Skelberg sends hers to Los Angeles.
HOTEL MEN ACCUSED.
ACTING AS FENCE.
RENO (Nev.), March 23.—Charging that under guise of conducting a hotel
in Reno, George and Frederick Elkins, wealthy hotel men, have been for months acting as the intermediaries
for thieves and robbers, the police arrested George Elkins tonight on a ranch near town, which it has been found has been the hiding place for a vast quantity of merchandise said to have been stolen from box cars and warehouses in this city.
The arrest followed an investigation
resulting from the accidental discovery of the merchandise. Elkins denied knowledge of the alleged robberies, claiming he bought the goods from peddlers.
RUSHING NEW ROAD.
WESTERN PACIFIC.
BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
OREVILLE, March 23.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The Utah Construction Company says there are 6000 men at work on the Western Pacific between Oreville and the Nevada line. Work is being rushed and the bench of the Spring Garden tunnel will be completed in about sixty days. Interest on the bonds of the company amount to about $1000 a day and the company
is eager to get the road in condition
so that money will be coming in before the end of the year. Track laying is in progress thirty miles above Oreville. Some delay will be experienced when the track-laying machine reaches Big Bar, as the steel for the bridge at that place has not arrived.
SLOPE BRIEFS.
Epworth League Conference.
STOCKTON, March 23.—The California conference of the Epworth League, which convened in this city
last evening, continued its session today in the form of an institute for instruction in Bible and church work.
This institute will continue until Friday evening, Saturday and Sunday to be devoted to league work. The meeting is largely attended, and this afternoon a reception will be tendered the delegates. This evening Rev.
George A. Miller, formerly of the Philippines, will deliver the principal address.
Direct Primary in Nevada.
CATHON (Nev.) March 23.—The Governor signed the direct primary law today. It will be given its first test in municipal and school elections this spring.
Big Fire at Victoria.
VICTORIA, March 23.—A two-story block owned by F. H. Pemberton, with stores fronting on the three streets occupying the lower story and the entire upper floor containing the luxuriously
furnished Pacific Club, was destroyed by fire early this morning. The loss is estimated at $100,000 and $200,000, mostly covered by insurance. There was a report that people were asleep in the Pacific Club and firemen tried in vain
to fight their way through the smoke,
but the club was unoccupied.
Passenger Train Wrecked in Arizona.
YUMA, (Ariz.) March 23.—Passenger train No. 9 was wrecked thirty miles west of Yuma this morning. The smoking car is reported to have turned turtle. Two physicians and a Red Cross nurse left with the wrecked car to attend to the scene of the wreck, in response to a message for assistance. A second report states
no loss of life and no injury of consequence to passengers.
Census at San Jose.
SAN JOSE, March 23.—The census
taken annually by the letter carriers
of this city, under the direction of Postmaster Hawley has just been completed and it shows an increase of 2500 in the population of the city since March, 1908.
WILL CONTEST ABANDONED.
BOSTON (Mass.) March 23.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Contrary to expectations, Lillian Nordica and Imogene A.
Costello of Los Angeles, with other contestants in the will case of the late Mrs. Yarnall F. Allen, of Masden,
did not appear today to press suit.
This afternoon the case was taken from the list, and the presumption is that the matter has been settled out of court. Shortly after the will was offered for probate, Mrs. Nordica, Miss Costello and other heirs filed a petition, protesting against the will.

CALIFORNIA IN TARIFF FIGHT.

Senators Get Many Telegrams Asking Changes.

Flint to Make Fight for More on Lemons.

Perkins Fears to Demand Lumber Increase.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, March 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The California Senators received many telegrams from California merchants, lumbermen, fruit men and others, asking for higher duties on some articles and lower ones on others, than are granted by the Payne bill.

It is understood that Senator Flint will make a determined fight to get a duty of 1½ cents on lemons, more for Zante currants, and various other concessions which the House has not yet granted. His attitude, however, will be governed largely by circumstances. He declines to talk on the subject for the reason that the committee is holding its sessions behind closed doors, and has refused to give out information as to its discussions. It is understood to be the intention of the committee, to follow the discussions in the House and to be ready with a report as soon as the House concludes its session in committee of the whole on the tariff bill.

Perkins offers the advice to refrain from making any attempt to amend the schedules affecting California while the bill is before the House. The Senate is likely, Perkins says, to make many and radical changes in the bill, and when it is reported by the Finance Committee the time will be ripe to fight for alterations before it goes back to the House.

Perkins fears that to ask for an increased duty on lumber might mean that the Senate might cut the duty on oranges, lemons, grapes, wine, or some other product which is more vitally important to California than lumber. He also said that an effort might be made to admit oil, cattle, sheep and wool free from Mexico.

REBUKE ROUSES DEMOCRATS.
Feeling at Fever Heat Against Members Who Voted for Fitzgerald Amendment.

(WASHINGTON PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Feeling among the Democrats in the House was at fever heat today as a result of the rebuke the Democratic caucus delivered last night impersonally to the twenty-three "bolters" who voted for the Fitzgerald amendment, to the rules.

Representative Kellher of Massachusetts, one of the recalcitrants, said that henceforth he would not recognize Clark as his leader. "Any one who approves the appointment of Representative Harrison to the Ways and Means Committee one day and two days later calls for his resignation cannot be my leader," said Kellher.

Representative Fitzgerald said: "I shall leave it to the country to judge which of the two Democratic members of the Rules Committee (Clark or himself) more accurately, properly and capably represents the true Democracy of the country."

OWENS RIVER PROTEST.
SMITH OBJECTING.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, March 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Congressman Smith visited the Interior Department today to see what had become of his protest against granting an application of Los Angeles for about 30,000 acres of land in Owens River Valley. He saw Assistant Secretary Pierce, who has the Owens River matter in charge, and was told by Pierce that the department would make careful inquiry into the matter.

If it should be found necessary, he said, the department would send an agent to the Owens River Valley to make careful inspection of the character of the lands wanted by Los Angeles. In any event, he said, no decision would be given without very careful consideration, and several weeks must elapse under the most favorable conditions before the application would be acted on.

WANTS BETTER SEAT.
LUCK AGAINST HIM.

(WASHINGTON PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, March 22.—After sixteen years in Congress, Representative Loudenslager of New Jersey has become tired of taking a back seat in the House.

Today he introduced a resolution designed to relieve the situation.

Mr. Loudenslager wants a change in the method of drawing for seats. For some years his little marble has not come out of the box until the last seats were chosen.

Now he proposes to have the members draw according to the length of service.

WORKING FOR TARIFF BILL.
WHIP DWIGHT RUBY.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, March 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Representative Smith was invited to dinner last night by Whip Dwight who is picking out representative men from various parts of the country with whom to discuss the tariff bill.

in tariff fight. Chairman Payne held the floor all day yesterday. Mr. Clark will speak today.

best method of getting tariff bills passed.

Smith was asked to act as lieutenant to Dwight in rounding up members from the Coast in case they should be needed, either in expressing opinion or to vote. The idea of the House leaders is now that if discussion of the bill is carried on actively for a week or ten days, every one will be tired out, and that they will be ready, after votes on half a dozen of the principal items are taken, to have a rule brought in shutting off further debate and forcing voting on the entire bill.

PRESIDENT MAY NOT VISIT US.

Traveling May Be Much Curtained Unless Congress Makes Allowance for Expenses.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, March 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Knowledge that President Taft's traveling may be much curtailed unless Congress decides to allow him an allowance to defray such expenses has caused the Pacific Coast members to fear that his projected trip to California, Washington, Oregon and Alaska may be abandoned. Congressman McKinley, Kahn and Hayes have busied themselves seeing the other representatives from Pacific Coast states, and asking them to attend a meeting to be held at 3:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon to discuss arrangements for the visit of the President to the Coast. It is possible that out of this meeting will come proposals for Congress to add something to what is allowed the President as salary, in order that he may travel in a manner befitting his office, with clerks necessary to attend to his correspondence while he is traveling. In this, the Congressmen from Texas, Colorado and Utah are the most ardent.

SPECIAL LAND AGENTS.
TO INVESTIGATE FRAUDS.

(WASHINGTON PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Special agents for the investigation of alleged frauds in the acquisition of public lands in the West were appointed today by the Secretary of the Interior, as follows:

Walter C. de Rouen of Louisiana, with headquarters at Little Rock, Ark.

William L. Miller of Minnesota, at Salt Lake, Utah.

Frank J. Lavan of Ohio, at Santa Fe, N. M.

James McG. Williamson of this city, at Enid, Okla.

PAYNE TALKS TARIFF.

Grows Indignant at Suggestion That Bill is Revision Upward and Retorts.

(WASHINGTON PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Meeting an hour earlier than usual, the House today continued consideration of the tariff bill. It was expected that Chairman Payne would introduce several amendments in completing his opening speech and that Mr. Clark of Missouri, the minority leader who would follow, would likely continue the remainder of the day. The Senate was not in session today.

When the House met there was a slim attendance, which led Mr. Macon of Arkansas, to suggest the absence of a quorum. As Mr. Payne was about to continue his explanation of the tariff bill the Arkansas member said he should be given a full hearing. The point was not pressed, however, and Mr. Payne took the floor.

Mr. Payne was pitted with questions from all sides. Again he was asked, this time by Mr. Moore of Pennsylvania, if there would be an opportunity to offer amendments to the bill in the House "or," Mr. Moore added, "must we look elsewhere?" meaning the Senate.

"That," Mr. Payne replied, "is entirely in the judgment of the House and in its control."

In his replies, Mr. Payne was decidedly more aggressive than yesterday. He became highly indignant when Mr. Garrett of Tennessee inquired if, taking the bill as a whole, it was not "revision upward."

"The gentleman has no right to say that," the Republican leader sharply announced. "It is not fair to say that, as an honorable man."

OLYMPIC ELK PRESERVE.
ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The slopes of Mount Olympia and the adjacent summits of the Olympic Mountains in Washington are to be set aside as a national monument for the protection and preservation of the Olympic elk, otherwise known as "Cervus Roosevelti" according to a proclamation issued by President Roosevelt before he left office.

The territory is within the Olympic national forest, and embraces objects of unusual scientific interest, and in a region which from time immemorial has formed the summer range and breeding grounds of the Olympic elk, a species peculiar to the mountains and rapidly decreasing in numbers.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.

Aspirants for Office.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Senator Flint has been appealed to in the Arizona governorship fight, the term of Gov. Kibbey being about to expire. Among the men who would like the place are W. S. Sturgis, Secretary of State, and Ike J. Starnes, the latter having come on to Washington to urge his claims in person.

Special Courtesy to Japs.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Directions have been issued by Assistant Secretary Reynolds of the Treasury to customs officers in New York, to extend special courtesy to the members of the Japanese Exposition Commission, who will arrive on the Luntia Thursday or Friday. The commissioners are coming to America in the interest of the Japanese exposition, which will be held in 1931.

BALKAN CRISIS.

SERBIAN CAPITAL IN DEEP GLOOM.

NURSING ASSOCIATIONS FORMED ALL OVER BELGRADE.

Serbs Can Hold Out Against Austria Three Months, It Is Thought; In Meeting, It Was Hoped to Veto Russia-Foreign Minister Wants Peace at Any Price.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

BUDAPEST (Hungary) March 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Serbian bands are concentrating on the Bosnian frontier.

In spite of peaceful assurances, anxiety continues.

In Northern Albania rumors are afoot of a military conspiracy against King Peter in Serbia.

Deep gloom prevails in Belgrade. Nursing associations have been formed all over the city, as well as in the leading provincial towns, and prominent physicians are devoting their efforts to instructing classes in giving first aid to wounded.

The Minister of War thinks the Serbian troops can hold out for three months at least, but that lack of ammunition and food supplies will make retreat necessary.

The Serbians hope to involve Russia in the struggle, and think it better to fight now than to be forever at the mercy of Austria. However, Milovanovich, the Foreign Minister, adheres to the peace-at-any-price policy.

Mr. Whitehead, British Minister to Serbia, said today that he thought the Serbians would back down, and that the Austrians would take the country it would not be on a mere punitive expedition.

GREAT BRITAIN PEACEMAKER.
ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.

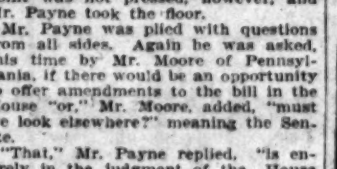

BERLIN, March 22.—Great Britain has undertaken to find a peaceful solution to the Austro-Serbian conflict. Sir Fairfax Leadley Stuart, at the British Embassy at Vienna, has discussed the subject with Baron von Aehrenthal, Austro-Hungarian Minister for Foreign Affairs, and a formula acceptable to Austria has been found, which is being communicated to the governments of Russia, France, Germany and Italy.

BALLOON PARK IN ST. LOUIS.

Aero Club Leases Land for Largest Ascension Grounds in the World.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

ST. LOUIS (Mo.) March 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The St. Louis Aero Club today leased land for the largest aeronautic ascension grounds in the world, and will build up the grounds unless it is in charge of a licensed pilot. This will greatly lessen the danger of any serious accident in the management of the balloon in flight.

The clouds disappearing on December 8, we discovered new mountain ranges trending south and southwest.

"Moving up the glacier over the treacherous snow covering the crevasses, we frequently fell through, but were saved by our harness and pulled out with a depot on rope platform. The sledge was badly damaged by the knife-edged crevasses.

Similar conditions obtained on our way up the glacier from December 6 to December 18, when we reached an altitude of 6800 feet.

"In latitude 83 deg. 16 min. 3 sec. we made a depot and left everything there but our food and instruments making a depot on rope platform. The sledge was badly damaged by the knife-edged crevasses.

December 26 we reached a plateau of the ice fields, an altitude of 8000 feet, thence gradually rising in long ridges to 10,500 feet.

"Finishing our relay work, we descended our second sledge there. There was a constant southerly blizzard, the wind drifting the snow, with the temperature ranging from 27 deg. to 70 deg. of frost.

"On December 27 we lost sight of the mountains, and the weather grew colder. The food continued out, and the wind blowing seventy miles an hour. It was impossible to move, and the men were frequently frosted in their sleeping bags.

"For sixty hours during January 7, 8 and 9 the blizzard raged with 75 deg. of frost, and the wind blowing seventy miles an hour. It was impossible to move, and the men were frequently frosted in their sleeping bags.

"January 9 we reached latitude 83 deg. 23 min. longitude 153 deg. 25 min. and the wind blowing seventy miles an hour. It was impossible to move, and the men were frequently frosted in their sleeping bags.

light on way 600 yards. December 2, the last remaining pony, socks, broke through the snow and disappeared in a crevasse of unknown depth. The swiftness of the men of the party were now hauling, a weight of 250 pounds per man.

The clouds disappearing on December 8, we discovered new mountain ranges trending south and southwest.

NARROW ESCAPES.

"Moving up the glacier over the treacherous snow covering the crevasses, we frequently fell through, but were saved by our harness and pulled out with a depot on rope platform. The sledge was badly damaged by the knife-edged crevasses.

Similar conditions obtained on our way up the glacier from December 6 to December 18, when we reached an altitude of 6800 feet.

"In latitude 83 deg. 16 min. 3 sec. we made a depot and left everything there but our food and instruments making a depot on rope platform. The sledge was badly damaged by the knife-edged crevasses.

December 26 we reached a plateau of the ice fields, an altitude of 8000 feet, thence gradually rising in long ridges to 10,500 feet.

"Finishing our relay work, we descended our second sledge there. There was a constant southerly blizzard, the wind drifting the snow, with the temperature ranging from 27 deg. to 70 deg. of frost.

"On December 27 we lost sight of the mountains, and the weather grew colder. The food continued out, and the wind blowing seventy miles an hour. It was impossible to move, and the men were frequently frosted in their sleeping bags.

ASKS DIVORCE, WIFE DYING.

Missouri. Could Not Wait
for Death to Part.

Woman in Hospital Having Drunk Acid.

She Had Fallen in Love
With Filipino.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
ROLLA, Mo., March 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] While his young wife in a hospital in Memphis, Tenn., was at the point of death from carbolic acid poisoning, Jacob E. Wait applied to Judge L. B. Woodruff, in the Circuit Court here this afternoon, for a divorce.

Judge Woodruff refused the decree
until it could be ascertained whether or not the wife would recover. Wait left the courtroom in company with Mrs. Walter Burton, Mrs. Wait's mother, who testified in his behalf at the divorce hearing. With Mrs. Burton, he left Rolla a few minutes later
for Memphis, in response to a telegram telling him that his young wife
was in a critical condition and that her death was momentarily expected.

With Mrs. Wait in the Memphis hospital is her younger sister, Gert Pryor,
who also drank carbolic acid. The sister made a suicide pact. Mrs. Wait gave the vital to her sister, and after she had drained half of its contents
took the bottle from her hand and drank the rest herself.

He alleges that during the summer
of 1908 she acquired the friendship and was unduly intimate with Vicolesano,
a Filipino, who until recently, was a student in the Missouri School of Mines in Rolla.

PREACHER KILLS PREACHER.
Baptist and Presbyterian Divines Quarrel Over Business Matter and Latter Was Shot.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
LEBANON, Mo., March 23.—At Rosa, a remote town in Laclede County, last night, Rev. Martin N. Johnson, aged forty, shot and killed Rev.
Solomon Odell, aged forty-six. Johnson is the Baptist minister of the neighborhood, while Odell was the Presbyterian divine at Rosa. They quarrelled over business matters.

Johnson is president of the Laclede
County Telephone Company, and Odell represented the Farmers' Telephone Company, a rival concern.

A meeting was held in the postoffice
at Rosa yesterday, looking to a combination of the rival concerns. Johnson says that Odell made a remark about him in the meeting. Later they met on the street and Johnson informed Odell that they should settle their difficulties then. Odell agreed and was reloading his revolver when Johnson drew his revolver and killed him. Johnson then fled. He returned today, however, and gave himself up.

LOTTERY JOINT RAIDED.
Two Chinese Proprietors, White Man
and Negro Caught in Dragnet.

Armed with search warrants, patrolmen of the Chinatown squad last night raided the lottery "joint" operated by Wong Kong and Tom Yot
at No. 411 North Los Angeles street,
arrested the proprietors and secured evidence, which, the officers say, is sufficient to convict the players.

Beside the two Chinamen, John Mc-Cormick, a white man, and W. Russell and L. Buchanan, negroes, were caught in a dragnet.

The place is one of the most notorious ones in Chinatown, and has been raided often, but hitherto the necessary evidence could not be obtained.
Tom Yot has been acting as a guide,
it is asserted, to not only his own, but
other lotteries.

Recently lottery play has been confined almost entirely to negroes, few white men daring to take chances
while the "dago" is so closely watched by the police.

In the past year the Chinatown
squad has practically eliminated gambling from Chinatown, with the result that its population has shrunk from 200 to about 50. The tong leaders are among those who have departed
for more lucrative fields in the north.

the head by J. E. Kennedy with a table knife.

STATE LEGISLATURE.
MAKING READY TO
DESERT SACRAMENTO.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
SACRAMENTO, March 23.—The houses of the Thirty-eighth session of the California Legislature
met tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock
for the last time. The concurrent resolutions providing for adjournment
until next morning, and the work of the lower house is in such condition
that there will be no difficulty in following out this plan.

Nearly all of the important measures have been considered and passed,
and there are none that can be said
to have any great weight which could be taken up.

It will be a get-away session, in which resolutions handing out "hot air" to everybody will be introduced.
Several presentations of tokens by which the speaker and chairman of committees will be remembered are to be made and Speaker
Stanton will then drop the gavel, closing the Thirty-eighth session.

One wound is in the right
cheek, another in the neck, and the other three on the top of the head.
None is serious.

Both men were arrested. Webster was taken to the Receiving Hospital
and Kennedy to the Central Police Station, where he was booked on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Webster says that, several months ago, he invited Kennedy to live with him in his shack on the condition that Kennedy would purchase the food.
The arrangement worked splendidly
until about a month ago, when Kennedy imbibed too freely of "dago red," quarrelled with Webster, and made, it is alleged, an attempt to kill the shack's owner. Webster fled, but returned the next day. Kennedy had become sober, and peace was restored.

Last night, when Webster arrived at his home, he found Kennedy intoxicated, and a quarrel followed.
Webster claims Kennedy struck him
with his fist in the right temple, and that when he grappled with him, Kennedy used a knife. Webster's calls for help, caught Kennedy and held him
until a policeman arrived.

MICHIGAN DRYS FIGHT.
Big Battle on Over Ormsby Bill to Regulate Liquor Traffic
in State.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
LANSING (Mich.), March 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One of the bitterest fights of the present Legislature is being waged tonight over the consideration of the Ormsby bill, which was drafted with a view to regulating the liquor traffic in this State. It looks as if the fight would be about evenly divided in the House, but the "dry"
are confidently predicting a victory
in the Senate.

A significant feature of the Anti-Liquor League is the fact that the fight is not for State-wide prohibition,
but rather for laws which it is claimed
will provide better regulation and enable a better experiment of existing liquor laws. The supporters of the Crosby bill claim that by its passage
the arrest and conviction of a saloon-keeper for violating the liquor laws
will compel him to retire from the business, that no saloons would be allowed within 400 feet of a school or church, and that stringent regulations of druggists would be provided. Also

ROMANCE BLIGHTED.
BRIDE OF DAY
IS CRIPPLED.
HURRIES TO JOIN HER HUSBAND,
FALLS DOWNSTAIRS.

Pretty Show Girl Submits to Ardent Wooing of Race-Track Follower—Tragedy Follows Closely on Wedding Ceremony After Performance in Theater.

A pretty romance which budded a year ago in New York, and blossomed
in Los Angeles yesterday morning,
was touched with pathetic blight last night, when Mrs. Ed Cook, a show girl of the Burgomaster company,
playing at the Majestic Theater, and a bride of only a few hours, fell down
a flight of stairs at the theater and received injuries which may leave her
a helpless cripple for life.

Mrs. Cook, who until yesterday forenoon, was Miss Jean M. Moore, met her husband about a year ago in New York, which is the home city of both.
Cook was 27, a race track follower,
supplied with plenty of money, and reassured. But Miss Moore was 26, and held an ambition to become a star
in her profession, the stage, so when Cook proposed to her she refused him.
But Cupid's darts had been driven deeply into the hearts of both, as it transpired yesterday.

Cook came to Los Angeles at the opening of the Santa Anita racing session and has been connected with one of the books at the track. He has stopped at the King Edward Hotel in East First street.

Miss Moore came to Los Angeles
with the Burgomaster company, and also became a guest at the King Edward. Neither had seen the other since leaving New York until they met accidentally in the hotel corridor Monday night. Cook again pressed his suit, and won.

Yesterday morning, early, the couple hurried to the County Clerk's office and secured a marriage license. Then they hurried to the courtroom of Justice of the Peace Pierce, who quickly
entered into the spirit of the romance,
and tied the knot. The couple repaired to the King Edward.

Last night Mrs. Cook took her regular part at the performance at the Majestic. Cook sat way down in front, and the young husband and bride had only eyes for each other.

Beforehand it had been arranged that the bride couple and a few friends would enjoy a wedding supper after the performance.

When the curtain rang down on the last act Mrs. Cook swiftly made her way for the stairway leading to her dressing-room in the basement of the theater. When about half way down her heel caught on a stair and the young woman pitched headlong down
the stairs.

When picked up she was unconscious. Her husband was a summoned and, placing the innocent form of his young wife into a cab, drove to the King Edward. Dr. John B. Renshaw
was summoned. Examination revealed from severe injury of the spine, which may leave her a cripple for life. Cook remained constant at his bride's bedside and could not be consoled. About 1 o'clock this morning Mrs. Cook regained consciousness, and attending doctors pronounced her condition as much improved.

DO YOU OWN A HYOMEI INHALER?

This is a picture of the little Hyomei (pronounced High-mee) inhaler. If you have one in your home, you have a treasure.

Into this hard rubber inhaler you can pour a few drops of Hyomei
and, presto, you have the best little physician
for catarrh, coughs,
colds, bronchitis, croup,
and asthma, the world
has ever known.

When you breathe
Hyomei you bring the healing virtues of the mountainous forests to your home. You get the very same healing, antiseptic air that you would breathe if you
resided in the forests
of pine and eucalyptus
of inland Australia,
where catarrh or consumption was never
known to exist.

If you have a Hyomei Inhaler in your home, any druggist will sell you a bottle of Hyomei for 50c.

If you have not an inhaler, ask your druggist for a complete outfit, which costs but $1.00, and includes an inhaler, a bottle of Hyomei, and simple instructions for use.

Hyomei is guaranteed to cure catarrh, asthma or bronchitis, or money back. It will relieve a cold in five minutes, and will break it up in five hours. It gives most gratifying relief to consumptive sufferers.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is still the mother's favorite for colds, croup, whooping-cough and bronchitis. It is quick and sure to cure, and cures man, woman and child.
"I have been using the famous Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for many years. It has been my mother and grandmother who have used it for a period of 25 years. I have found it to be the best remedy for cough, cold and other ailments. For what we highly recommend it." Mrs. Walter J. Lister, 235 South St., Baltimore, Md.

Cough Syrup and to convince you that it will cure, we will send a trial bottle free to all who will write us and mention this paper.

WART-COLORED TIGHTS CRIME.

Minneapolis Citizens Would Jail Woman in Selo-Fitting Red, White and Blue.

(BY TELETYPE WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

ST. PAUL (Minn.) March 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The House Committee on Crimes has recommended for passage a bill prohibiting the wearing of red, white and blue tights.

As reported back to the House, it has been rerafted and enlarged beyond the scope of the original bill. The committee bill provides the punishment of ninety days in jail or $100 fine for wearing red, white and blue tights, or other apparel displaying the national colors by any woman at a public performance.

An effort was made today to pass the bill under suspension of rules.

As returned to his mother's arms after noon today, the reunion took place around the family hearth in the White House, and no person was permitted to witness the intimate of mother and son, only the loving relatives of the family belated from the local homecoming the lad.

Sharon that could not be earlier, the little fellow and his father arrived here at 12:45 after an absence of 123 hours. Fully 5000 people gathered for the demonstration meeting. Pushing their way through the dense crowd surrounding the railroad station, Mr. Whittle, a white man, and a detective boarded a car and were quickly driven home.

Cheering and singing, the great throngs of enthusiastic neighbors and citizens escorted the cab through the streets. Business was practically at a standstill. A National Citizens' committee and a justification that last night tonight was given full swing.

There was a parade by the Bull H company and the Bull Rifle band named for Whittle's uncle, and the lad, a demonstration from through the principle streets of the White House, where 5000 people assembled.

Whittle addressed the throng. I suggested that children be taught to fear parents to fear strangers and make a bold attempt to induce children company them.

It is believed here the woman arrested on suspicion of having been implicated in the kidnapping is from Sharon. He is said to have knowledge of Whittle's family and a provisionally would pay any amount for the recovery of his son.

The woman on whom suspicion has centered here, her questioner that "there will be a hell of a Sharon tomorrow" of the well known of arrest, would cause a great commotion.

JUDGE BORDWELL DECIDES THAT RECALL ELECTION SHALL GO ON.

Says Court Cannot Intervene to Prevent—Quo Warranto Proceedings Next—Republicans Will Not Nominate.

Judge Bordwell decides that the recall election must proceed. There will be no appeal from his decision. Further legal proceedings against the recall will be instituted after the election. The Republican organization will not place anybody in nomination against Alexander. Many Republicans would vote for W. D. Stephens if he would stand for it, but he is committed to Alexander. The prohibitionists will vote solidly for their candidate, Mr. Yerger. The Socialists are hopeful of the election of their nominee, Fred C. Wheeler, whose name is the only one on the official printed ballot, besides Alexander.

Judge Walter Bordwell.

By a decision rendered late last night, after twenty-four hours of almost continuous work, Judge Bordwell of the Superior Court denied the appeal of Henry S. Jones for an injunction against the recall election. The suits by Jones raised the question whether the recall election should be held after the incumbent of the Mayor's office, A. C. Harper, had withdrawn from the recall ticket and resigned his office. It was contended that when the resignation was accepted, the purpose of the recall ended and that the Council, in electing W. D. Stephens as Mayor to fill the period between Harper's resignation and the recall election (Friday next) should have elected him for the full unexpired term of Harper, or until the first Monday in next January.

Thereafter, "the successor of any officer so removed shall hold office during the unexpired term of his predecessor." And that in the event of said election and the acceptance of said resignation, it was formally resolved "that the City Council do now proceed to fill the vacancy existing in the office of Mayor by appointing the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. At such election, if some other person than the incumbent receives the highest number of votes, the incumbent shall thereupon be deemed removed from office upon qualification of his successor. In case the party who receives the highest number of votes should fail to qualify within ten days after receiving notification of election, the office shall be deemed to be vacant. If the incumbent receives the highest number of votes he shall continue in office."

One A. C. Harper was elected and qualified as Mayor of said city for a term of three years, beginning the first Monday in January, 1907. On the 18th day of February, 1909, the City Clerk certified to the City Council that a petition, sufficient under the recall provisions of the charter, had been filed demanding an election of a successor to A. C. Harper, sought to be removed from said office of Mayor. On the 19th of February the Council ordered an election to be held on the 15th day of March, 1909, the day of the filing of the petition, and the provisions of said Sec. 180.

The nature of the decision was not known until late last night, when Judge Bordwell announced it from his office in the International Bank building. Information that such a decision had been reached preceded his announcement. It inspired much discussion among politicians who were anxiously waiting for the result of the decision, according to Edwin A. McArthur, one of the attorneys for the plaintiff.

"An appeal would not be as direct a course of action as quo warranto proceedings," said he. "The time is too short for an appeal and the next step will be the institution of quo warranto suits. When Mayor Stephens turns over his office to whomever may be elected Friday we will bring the quo warranto proceeding to test his right to hold the office."

Under such a proceeding the successful candidate will be asked to show in court by what authority he is entitled to the office. This proceeding will open a way to test the entire validity of the recall provision of the city charter. There will be no attempt on the part of the Republican organization to place a candidate before the people. McGarrin, chairman of the City Central Committee, said last night:

"This has been a fight between the recallers and the Democrats all along, and the Republican organization has taken no part in it. At this late day it is inadvisable that the organization should attempt to place a candidate in the field. When it was brought to our attention to do this, our candidates did not want to enter the field because of their unpreparedness for a short notice. The recall candidates are preparing to vote for Wheeler, preferring even a Socialist to the candidate of the recall bosses."

Many Republicans adhere to the view that any action by the party or its members will be useless. They believe that when the recall principle is squarely tested in court, on its merits, it will be declared invalid, and the whole temper will be dissipated.

The decision of Judge Bordwell was received with rejoicing by the recallers. Expecting that the court would announce its conclusions last night, many of the leaders were at the headquarters, and while awaiting the news. Arrangements to go ahead with the campaign for Alexander, the recall candidate for Mayor, were immediately made, and the feeling of suspense, which had held the work in check for several days, was over. Still some of the recallers regretted that their ticket had been loaded with Alexander, Wheeler and others.

Conferees as to whether the decision would not start a stampede for Mayor Stephens, Wheeler and others.

Judge Bordwell's decision follows:

On the 12th day of March the said Harper filed with the City Clerk two documents which, though received by him at the same time, were by him filed in his office in the following order:

(One) "I hereby request that you do not place my name or cause it to be placed on the official ballot to be used on the recall election on March 15, 1909, which said election is called for the purpose of recalling A. C. Harper as Mayor of the City of Los Angeles."

(Two) "Los Angeles, Cal., March 11, 1909. To the Hon. City Council of the City of Los Angeles: I, A. C. Harper, Mayor of said city, do hereby resign the office of Mayor of said city, effective immediately. (Signed) A. C. HARPER."

On the 15th day of March the Council resolved "that the office of the Mayor of the City of Los Angeles be, and the same is hereby, declared vacant," and on the same day passed a resolution wherein, after reciting the filing of the recall petition and the ordering of said election and the acceptance of said resignation, it was formally resolved "that the City Council do now proceed to fill the vacancy existing in the office of Mayor by appointing the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. At such election, if some other person than the incumbent receives the highest number of votes, the incumbent shall thereupon be deemed removed from office upon qualification of his successor. In case the party who receives the highest number of votes should fail to qualify within ten days after receiving notification of election, the office shall be deemed to be vacant. ## CATERPILLARS FOR DESERT.

Queer Engines and Wagons to Work on the Aqueduct Are Bought.

To transport, aqueduct material across the desert where the tracks of steel have never ventured, the Board of Public Works yesterday let a contract to the Holt Manufacturing Company of Stockton for twenty-five caterpillar engines and seventy-eight caterpillar wagons.

The caterpillar machine is so called because it is a traction steam engine which carries a belt of steel around its wheels, and this endless chain makes a track over which it moves with rapidity. There are cleats on the steel belt that give it firm power, and it travels speedily over soft earth, through shallow water, and over hills.

The seventy-eight wagons are equipped with wheels of extraordinary width and are pulled by the engines just as a train would be pulled on its steel track.

The contract price for the entire outfit is $141,000, and the delivery is to be within six months at the points needed.

This supply service is to accelerate the speed of the transportation, which could not be accomplished by animal power without tremendous expense and great delay.

The trains of three cars each will carry sixty tons or more across the soft desert and over the roads which other equipment could scarcely traverse.

The contract was awarded on the recommendation of Chief Engineer Mulholland.

BUT OLD NICK'S DOG WON'T BARK.

"LITTLE JOE" IS MUM BEFORE HIS INQUISITORS.

Committed to County Jail for Contempt by Judge James for Refusing to Answer Questions Before Special Grand Jury—Will Be Given Another Chance Today.

The success of the graft prosecution seems now to depend very largely upon the effect of jail life upon the "little Joe" Durand. Little Joe was found guilty of contempt of court by Judge James yesterday for having refused to answer the questions of the grand jury. He was sent back to jail and will be brought before the grand jury again at 10 o'clock this morning.

If he again defies the jury he will undoubtedly be taken back to jail. It is evident that the questions remain to be seen whether Joe or the Law will win at this game of "freedom."

Durand is a little plumed Frenchman with his hair plastered down so slickly it has the effect of being varnished onto his skull. He looked pained and insulted when he was brought into court yesterday, at 3 o'clock. It is evident that the questions asked of Durand were not pertinent or material; they related to the amount of money brought from France by his client.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Ford contended that the Durand was not pertinent by further testimony. In adjudging Durand guilty of contempt and ordering him to appear again before the grand jury today, Judge James intimated that in case Durand again had to be found guilty, he would consider a motion to fix bail at $1000.

SIMPLE ASSAULT.

Verdict for Shooting in Case Against J. Frank Ware, a Real Estate Man.

The case against J. Frank Ware, a real estate man of this city, charged with making an assault with a deadly weapon upon Albert Ellis, at a camp near Altadena, on September 14 last, was concluded before Judge Davis and a jury last night, with a verdict of simple assault.

Ware is the owner of a ranch at that place, and in spite of warning Ellis had insisted upon going over the land on a hunting expedition. He refused to leave at the demand of Mrs. Ware, when the husband seized a gun and went after him. In the fight that followed, Ellis was shot in the right leg. Ware admitted in his testimony that he had carried the gun when he went to the camp, but that it was not discharged accidentally. The case occupied the attention of the court for four days.

Gen. Lauck to Be Guest, and Plans to Be Made Toward Entertaining Adjutants-General.

Adj.-Gen. J. B. Lauck will be in the city tomorrow, and will be the guest at an important luncheon to be given at noon at Levy's by the members of the Governor's staff and the National Guard officers of Southern California. At that time plans will be matured for the entertainment of the adjutants-general of the various States, who will assemble in Los Angeles May 17 in national convention. Two thousand dollars must be raised for that purpose, and this subject will be discussed at the luncheon.

BIG MONEY IN YAQUI VALLEY.

John Hays Hammond Takes Large Interest.

Famous Mining Expert Backs Los Angeles Men.

Big Irrigation Canals and a Railroad Project.

Millions, represented by John Hays Hammond, the world-famous mining expert; Harry Payne Whitney, the New York capitalist; Leigh Hunt, a man of money of New York, who has opened big colonization and other development projects in the Northwest, in China and recently in the Sudan; and Cortland E. Palmer, a mining expert ranking close to Mr. Hammond, have come to develop the west coast of Mexico tributary to Los Angeles and to carry forward on the largest scale the colonization of the great Yaqui Valley begun by the Richardson brothers in this city.

The Yaqui Land and Water Company, capitalization $15,000,000, has been formed and taken over the entire assets of the Richardson Colonization Company, viz., the entire stock of the Compania Constructora Richardson, S. A., the Mexican corporation that owns the 800,000 acres in the Yaqui River Valley. The deal makes no change in the active management, and the Richardsons retain this as before with their stock interests.

The officers and directors are: Davis Richardson, president and general manager; John Hays Hammond, first vice-president; Harry Payne Whitney, second vice-president; Will E. Richardson, third vice-president; James Douglas Campbell, secretary and treasurer; Herbert A. Ribbet, assistant general manager; L. O. Sinner, president of the International Irrigation Congress the year it met at Sacramento, is manager at Esperanza, the Mexican headquarters in the Yaqui Valley. Charles F. O'Brien, who has been in charge of various colonization enterprises in the north of the State, is general land sales agent; L. H. Taylor, late of the Truckee-Carson irrigation project, is chief engineer. Olmstead of this city, consulting engineer. Mr. Ribbet has been with the Richardsons for years. The old directors represent the new interests.

Just what sum the New York millionaires have paid in cash is not made public, but it is expressed in seven figures, say the local officers. Mr. Hammond, interested in the same project, representative and made an examination of the land last fall before they invested.

THE YAQUI LANDS. The lands lie along the delta of the Rio Yaqui. They are rich agriculturally, will grow all kinds of grain, vegetables, fruits, etc., both such as are raised in California and tropical staples such as sugar cane. The last two years have witnessed the introduction of many products of this State, such as lima beans, tomatoes and many other vegetables. Oranges of the best variety are grown in Sonora; so are lemons and kindred fruits. There is good timber, and the other possibilities are almost unlimited.

Already 25,000 acres have been sold to 250 California farmers. Quite a number of these have settled there by this time and are meeting with every success. The railroad has opened a way to market and products of the region are being sold in Los Angeles. The company has just bought 75,000 acres additional to the 550,000 it has had for some time. The new adjoints the old. The headquarters are at the town of Esperanza, established by the company on the main line of the Cananea, Yaqui River and Pacific.

In January last the lands were taken off the market until further preparatory work was done and another block of 10,000 acres is to be opened soon. The country is all within the territory of Los Angeles; the general offices are there, looking things this way for everything. The Southern Pacific has just put on the first excursion rates to the Yaqui Valley for colonists.

RAILROAD TO BE BUILT. In the fall as soon as the rainy season is over a railroad will be built to connect Esperanza with other parts of the lands and with Tobar Bay on the Gulf of California, where there is an excellent harbor that has been used for years for landing supplies for this region and shipping out such products as have been moved in past years. Steamers ply to and from Guaymas, some seventy miles to the north and to Altata and Mazatlan on the south. The road will be standard, steam powered, and with its various branches to various parts of the lands, will be about 100 miles in length. At Esperanza it will connect with the main Harriman line.

The need for immense capital to carry on such vast enterprises with railroads, irrigation plants and towns, was what induced the Richardsons to seek the cooperation of men of such big means.

A townsite has been laid out for the new town of Yaqui which will be established at once. The company's railroad will run right through this settlement.

IRIGATION SYSTEM. The company's main irrigation canal is twenty-six miles long and twenty metres or seventy feet wide at the head and fifty feet at its narrowest point. Besides there are fifteen miles of laterals, six metres over twenty feet wide. A government concession gives the perpetual right to 1970 cubic feet of water per second from the Yaqui River. It is claimed that this enterprise exceeds in extent any irrigation project on the American continent. The Roosevelt dam only providing, it is said, for 100,000 acres.

The canals will also be used as avenues of transportation. At present three motor boats are in use moving supplies and men.

Four traction engines, 150 teams and scrapers and 200 men are employed in the irrigation works and roads. Engineers (Continued on Ninth Page.)

PUBLIC WORKS OFFICIAL DOINGS.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Machinery and material dealers and engineers have petitioned the Civil Service Commission to remove J. F. Connell, examining engineer, alleging incompetency and misuse of his office.

The jury in the George M. Tichenor embezzlement case reached no agreement and was discharged. The final vote for conviction, four, for acquittal, eight.

The motion to make permanent the temporary injunction in the school bond case will be argued before Judge Bledsoe of San Bernardino tomorrow.

C. B. Clark, charged with extortion was discharged yesterday, on a technicality, after E. Kosta, his partner in the crime, had pleaded guilty.

AT THE CITY HALL.

HIGH PRESSURE ON CONNELL.

EXAMINING ENGINEER MAY FACE SERIOUS CHARGES.

Machinery and Material Dealers and Engineers Petition Commission for His Removal, Alleging Incompetency and Self-Interest—Library Cases Wiped Off Slate.

The Civil Service Commission's searchlight, which has played so long on the office of the Board of Engineers in the City Hall, is to be switched on the examining engineer, who has been accused of incompetency and self-interest.

The particular object of the investigation is to find out how J. F. Connell, a chief engineer, who has had the examining of applicants for engineering licenses, has conducted his business. According to accusations made to the commission yesterday by engineers and business firms, he has been using his office to control the engineers who procured licenses and to stifle the name of machinery and appliances in which he is interested.

This accusation was made in a petition for his removal signed by Fairbanks, Morse & Co., the Baker Iron Works and others, who have to deal with engineers. The other petition was signed by eight engineers, some of them in official position.

The machinery and material dealers allege that Connell uses his position to put in position engineers in the large building who are to control the supply of material needed. Connell is chief engineer at several big buildings. The machinery men say this situation makes competition a farce.

The engineers avow their belief that Connell has prevented the reaching of those who were entitled to them and has given higher licenses to others who were not entitled to them.

Several weeks ago J. F. Connell, an engineer who alleged Connell refused him a first-class license on a mere technicality, made charges of incompetency before the commission. While that body was preparing to cite Connell for trial it received a letter from Connell asking to withdraw the charges "as everything was now satisfactory." But the commission didn't accept the withdrawal and would not dismiss the charges. Connell was cited to appear last Tuesday but the question of the board's jurisdiction was raised and this is now the point in the City Attorney's hands. An opinion from him will be like carrying coals to Newcastle, for there are four lawyers on the commission, but they will not act without official advice.

Obert alleged many things against Connell, but they all went to impeach his conduct of the office in a distorted way. Obert alleged that one man who held a government commission to act as engineer on any building in the city was turned down by Connell on pretext.

The licensing of stationary engineers is in charge of a board composed of Connell, F. Rademacher and J. H. McGuire. The other members are not concerned in the present investigation. The library cases are a closed incident. The commission succeeded in dismissing the last two cases—against Miss Turner and Miss Blomquist—without prejudice to defendant or complainant as the attorneys agreed would be satisfied.

the Council, and Dromgold suggested that Principal House of the High School should appear before the Council and explain what the board intends to do if the two acres asked for are granted.

NO CITY SCALES.

ACTION IS POSTPONED.

After cutting the heart out of the proposed ordinance for the establishment of a city scales, the Council yesterday postponed action on the remainder for two weeks. The ordinance provided for the down-town public scale at a point where it is most needed. But the Council feared this would be the city in competition with the forty other scales it proposed to license as "official" and would destroy the general usefulness of the scheme.

Amended provides for licensing and officializing the existing or future scales in the rate of merchandise or material of 1000 pounds or more. As amended the ordinance draw strong criticism from J. F. Paulding, secretary of the Retail Grocers' Association, and G. W. Howard, president of the Hay Dealers' Association. Both said the new ordinance was no protection to the small consumer and operator of the interest of the large wholesaler and retailer who had scales of his own and could advertise "official" weight—his own.

CITY HALL BRIEVITIES.

Mary Lehan, Cherokee square, mother of twenty-one children—seven girls and six boys—carried a bag of gold into the City Clerk's office yesterday to pay for three licenses as a palmist, phrenologist and fortune teller. She was originally the wife of a full-blooded Cherokee, but now bears the name of her Serbian husband.

W. H. Workman bid $200 before the Council yesterday for a franchise for a street railroad on Boyle avenue from Seventh street to Stephenson avenue, a distance of one block.

According to bids received by the Council yesterday for hay, barley and oat hay in lots of 25 tons and barley and wheat mixed 25. The bids were referred to the Supply Committee.

The Board of Public Works has asked the Council to consider the Los Angeles Pacific Company and the Los Angeles Railway Company to bring their trams to the city and improve portions of Sunset boulevard between Hill street and Beaudry avenue.

LEGAL SOMERSAULT.

"Let's look into the somersault business," said Councilman Dromgold yesterday, when a decision of the City Attorney was read permitting a refund of church taxes. In two cases other cases already have been held the church had filed the legal affidavit of the use of its property exclusively for religious purposes and was entitled to a refund. But it was found that this affidavit was filed long after the assessments were made and such action had not been permitted in the other cases. So the request was sent back to the City Attorney to ascertain if he could "somersault" back into his original position.

SWAP COURTS IN LAW DEAL.

JUDGE HUTTON WILL NOT HEAR SCHOOL BONDS CASE.

Important Legal Points Involving Validity of Recent Special Election to Be Passed Up to Judge Bledsoe of San Bernardino County for Final Adjudication.

Judge Hutton has decided not to hear the motion made to make permanent the temporary injunction involving the issue of school bonds, set for his court, tomorrow morning.

The matter will come up before Judge Bledsoe of San Bernardino, and Judge Hutton left last night for that place, where he will hold court during the absence of his colleagues on the bench in this city. The conclusion of Judge Hutton was reached after a careful study of the law holding that while his interest as an owner of stock in the Southern Trust Company was small and quite remote, that it did exist, and in the interest of all concerned it would be better to let the case be tried before a Superior Judge against whom not even the suspicion of self-interest could be lodged.

The objection against Judge Hutton, held with still last night for that place, where he will hold court during the absence of his colleagues on the bench in this city. fool on these things is what might be called the scientific man; he is all ways looking for reasons for this and that, and being unable to find any, is mystified. A boy on the street is not so easily imposed on by a con man, but goes at the bottom of the matter, and he usually does not what he is looking for. The scientific man is an easy mark for the spiritualistic work.

PLAN THAT FAILED.

JUDGMENT FOR PLAINTIFFS.

An echo of the plan, backed by a real estate syndicate, that had for its object the construction of what was to be known as the Long Beach-Monrovia traction line, from the foothills to the sea, and touch a number of the smaller towns en route, was heard in court yesterday.

A subdivision was laid out in town lots at Hynes, with glowing promises of the growth of the section and the consequent increase in value.

An action was brought by members of the syndicate to recover money paid on the agreement. The defendants filed a cross-complaint to recover the money advanced by the plaintiffs under their said contracts to be paid to them.

Among other false representations alleged in the complaint was that a certain piece of twenty acres of land in the town of Hynes could be purchased at a great bargain, and that said land was then of the market value of $1000 per acre, and that none of the other land there or in the vicinity could be purchased for any less price; that an electric railway was then in course of construction and would be immediately completed, and operated thereon from Monrovia to the sea by way of the town of Hynes, through and along these twenty acres.

Judge Wilbur handed down a decision in the case yesterday, the action being styled Nannie Royal against Charles Lang, et al. The court said the land in question was not worth to exceed $500 per acre, and gave judgment for the plaintiffs for the sum of $25,000, with interest and costs.

REGULAR CASE.

FREE ON TECHNICALITY.

On January 4, last, C. B. Clark and A. Kosta, alleged employees of the Santa Fe Railway, were arrested on a complaint issued by Thomas M. Rogers, a veteran, who claimed that the pair, impersonating officers, and threatening to arrest him on a serious charge, had looted a cash box from him. The men were arraigned in due form in Judge Wilbur's court some days ago, and were found guilty, but Clark concluded to stand bail, and his trial began in Department No. 10 yesterday.

Judge Wilbur handed down a decision in the case yesterday, the action being styled Nannie Royal against Charles Lang, et al. The court said the land in question was not worth to exceed $500 per acre, and gave judgment for the plaintiffs for the sum of $25,000, with interest and costs.

The grave of the petition is that the plaintiffs be allowed to redeem the property upon the payment of what is found to be due to H. Caddagan from the Trojan Mining Company; that a receiver be appointed to manage and control the same and that the defendants be enjoined from acting as directors and trustees of the said Trojan Mining Company.

FIRST WIFE EXCUSE.

LATER MARRIAGE ANNULLED.

Judge James yesterday annulled the marriage of Henry G. Cummings to Rosa Smith Cummings. The husband testified that they were married April 11, 1908, in San Francisco, and lived together until April 19, 1905. He testified that at the time of his marriage he had a lawful wife living, Lela May Cummings, the union being dissolved by divorce. The first marriage took place in Rock county, Wis., June 17, 1888, and she had left him in December, 1891, at Milwaukee. He said he had reason to believe that his first wife had secured a divorce before he was married the second time.

FACTS, FEATURES AND FANCIES FOR WOMEN.

BY MISS SYDNEY FORD.

Never were more bewitching little creations of lingerie, lace and fine straw braids offered for the very small girls than this season. There has been a distinct change in the models of headgear designed for the little folks as most mothers have observed. The old large-crowned, wide-brimmed affairs, which made even the prettiest of baby girls look too-heavy, have made way for smaller, snuggler, daintier shapes in better proportion to the small heads which will wear them and, though there may be a trill or a flare around the front for a finish, this is merely wide enough to make a soft, fluffy frame for the little face within.

Dear Little Dutch Bonnets.

The dear little Dutch straw bonnets are made of the finest, lacey braids, left enough to be handled like lace itself. Flowers—dainty daisy blossoms, or forget-me-nots or any of the small flowers which seem made for baby bonnets, almost invariably appear on these quaint models, while frills of lace, ribbons and wreaths of rosebuds may encircle the face.

Small Mushroom, Too.

The small mushroom hats are too dear for anything. They come in leg-horn and a variety of smooth straw and are trimmed with loops of soft ribbon with a chic little bunch of blossoms cocked smartly at one side. A French hat of this type intended for a child of 8 or 7 years had a soft scarf of pale blue ribbon folded about it under one of the frills. At the left side and a little toward the back, this scarf was caught by a small wreath of pink and white Jasmines and left in loops and ends over the brow.

Any of these little hats and bonnets are both childish and picturesque and the mother cannot well go astray in choosing little for her daughter's Easter bonnet if she has her eye open to the charming models offered in the shops.

Children's Shoes.

The most charming little shoes now offered for children, too, I dropped into a shop where a specialty is made of footwear for the little folk and such cunning slippers as I saw! There were the soft ones intended for baby's very first shoes, of white or blue linen, embroidered with a dainty spray of blossoms over the tiny toes.

There were the silk moccasin slippers and shoes and the soft moccasins in gray or brown suede with a few strands of bright beads where the buckles would blend on grown-up shoes, and a trill of fringed suede falling over the dimpled ankles.

There were some smart cavalier hats with a few strands of beads, the tops folded over in the most fascinating style. These are for children from 4 years old and up and are great favorites for house wear with the small fry—especially the red moccasin cavaliers with the shining black patent leather tops.

The Confectioner's Art.

The windows of the confectioner's shops are nothing if not artistic these days. One wonders why they have been so long in waking up to the possibilities of art in the display even in the packing of a box of candies which can be made as lovely as a box of flowers if one has the knack. The opening on Broadway a few months ago of a shop whose manager is keenly alert to all these things has verily worked a transformation in all our candy stores. Numerous other shops have sprung up under catchy names and the windows blossomed out in these confectionery conceits.

The latest thing now is the brown oblong box of brown chocolates, each piece resting in a crimped brown nest of its own under the brown paper lace that a single hint or shade appears except the brown of the chocolates, save only the name and trademark of the firm.

DIFFICULT TO BREATHE

Relief Overnight by Latest Scientific Discovery.

In spite of the fact that the majority of asthma sufferers are inclined toward the belief that asthma is incurable, the statement is made without qualification that the only permanent cure for this distressing disease is the celebrated specific, acetone diphenol since its discovery, a short time ago, by the Austrian Laboratory. Chronic cases of asthma in all parts of the country have been permanently cured by this wonderful preparation, which is taken by the patient in seven-drop doses, at home without necessitating a change of climate, which is foolishly supposed to be necessary.

The demand for acetone in Los Angeles has caused the directors of the Laboratory to supply the Owl Drug Co. with a quantity of the preparation—a 50-cent size for mild cases, and the 25 size, sufficient for one month's treatment, and which will cure chronic cases with a rapidity that will simply astonish the patient.

The Austrian Laboratory, 32 West 25th street, New York City, will send free an experimental treatment to all those who write for it.

Adult-eration or Sophistication

It matters not which you call it—it is now so common so common that you cannot detect it. The pure law aims to protect you in buying original packages, but beyond that you are at the mercy of your purveyor. What the safe-guard? Be careful. Select your provisions. Use judgment. One place you are always safe, whether in the lunch room or the counters or just ordering a day dinner, and that is at Christopher's. You take no risk what ever because Christopher takes no risk.

walk with your knees and ankles alone. Try to walk with every muscle of your body. Don't walk with high heels, let them be as flat as possible. Don't imitate the French women, who have recently taken up walking in the wearing of high heels. Wear shoes none at all, for the object is to let the fresh air into the lungs for this in itself is a powerful reduction agency. Don't walk so far one day that you cannot walk at all the next, and don't let your muscles get too tired.

The Venetian diet, which is prescribed at a health resort in Venice, contains but two dishes. One is a sort of rice pudding, made of rice, sugar and milk, and the other is an omelet, in which there may be chopped olives, vegetables, or any other food that goes well in an omelet. Upon this diet the patient thrives and grows slim.

Our Fur Hats Save Lives.

Hunters along the lower Mississippi declare that the fashionable fur hat for fur hats among the women has done much to save the lives along the river in Louisiana. Muskrats, which for years have cost the State no end of trouble and thousands of dollars through their depredations in the levees, have been so eagerly sought by the military trade throughout the winter that Louisiana hunters have given up the pursuit of ducks and other game and turned their attention to trapping muskrats.

During the last winter the millinery stores in New Orleans bought several hundred muskrat furs from hunters in the different parishes and placed them in turbanes. One hunter alone in February killed 600 rats, for which he received 50 cents apiece.

One of the most interesting of the lead of this mighty nimrod, and it begins to look as if the State will soon rid of the pestiferous rodents whose burrowings have for many years endangered the cities and towns along Louisiana's river fronts.

Lenten Luxuries.

Fasting during Lent is sometimes more expensive than keeping to the ordinary diet, observes a New York paper. Russian caviar at $10 per pound, German carp and salmon at $1 a pound, planked eel, pompano, diamond-backed terrapin, shrimp from the Gulf of Mexico, oyster crabs, imported anchovies and broiled live lobsters count up considerably on the Lenten bill of fare.

Asparagus tips, endives and Brussels sprouts, raised in Belgium, and almost individually under small glass domes, might be said to cost the consumer on an average about $2 a mouthful.

Said the proprietor of a first-class New York hotel: "I can eat, with- out discomfort, eat $100 worth of food at one meal. Suppose, for example, I call for a five-priced feast brought here from the Caspian Sea, for fresh Russian caviar imported at a cost of $10 a pound, let him begin with green turtle soup and continue with diamond-backed terrapin and side dishes and sauces concocted of the most expensive articles out of season in the market and the menu would easily run up to $100, for it costs as much to provide an especially rare dish for one person as for ten."

Fashions and Fads.

Plain shirtwaists prevail. The extra long corset has won out. Checks and plaids are very popular. Many variations of boleros are seen. The dainty embroidery vogue is increased. For the most part hat shapes are lowering. There are more draperies than ever in the past. Silver is the latest fad of Parisians in jewelry. The square velvet dot is the leader in veillings. There is very little demand for silver slippers. Shoes, stockings and gloves should match the gown. We saw many light suits trimmed with jet buttons. The newest veil is double and a full yard each way. While gloves seem to have come back for evening wear. Peacock designs figure prominently in decorative effects. Black lace edged with velvet is the latest thing in sashes. The dressy waist tucked sleeve is generally chosen. Eyebrow embroidery will maintain its vogue the coming season. Darned effects continue in favor in the matter of embroidery.

Don't Forget!

Three Times a Day

As a gentle, non-intoxicating, tonic medicine, every tired woman should take a spoonful of Cardui, three times a day.

Cardui will help you to get back your strength, by increasing your appetite, toning up your nerves, regulating the proper working of your womanly organs, and building up the natural, resisting power of your tissues, against fatigue and disease.

The details of how it does this, it is not necessary to explain. The thing to remember is, that it obtains its results, by acting upon the female constitution, being a medicine for women and not by any manner of means for men.

Take Cardui then, ladies, for it will surely help you, helped a million others, in the past 80 years.

Mrs. Fannie Ellis, of Foster, "I was sick for seven (7) years, trouble. Every month, I would with my head and back. Half the not stand on my feet, without took 12 bottles of Cardui and healthy and stout. Cardui is suffering women." Try it.

Emergency Committee.

The Emergency Committee of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Hoover-street School gave a successful children's house party and entertainment at the Westlake Church during the week. A feature was an interesting talk by Mrs. Chalmers Smith, president of the California Congress of Mothers, who told of the relief work of the Association. Mrs. Smith had attended the opening of the Penny Kitchen at the Ann-street School, spoke enthusiastically of this work, and expressed the hope that many more of these may soon be established. Mrs. Bertha H. Baruch, delight of the audience with a little talk on characteristics of child life through the drama, and urged interest in the movement for the creation of a children's theater in this city.

THIEVES' RICH HARVEST.

Hotel Guests Lose Jewels and Musicians' Pocket Is Picked—Other Crimes Reported.

Despite precautions taken by the police, and the advice to citizens to keep their homes locked during their absence, thieves continue to work successfully in many districts of Los Angeles. It is believed that most of the crimes are perpetrated by members of one gang.

Yesterday several losses were reported to the detectives. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sweet of the Hotel Knickerbocker at No. 31 South Hope street, lost jewels of the intrinsic value of $100, but worth much more to the owners because the stones were brought from the Orient.

Sweet is a retired banker of Kansas City, who spends his winter in Los Angeles. With his wife, he left the hotel at 9 o'clock Monday morning and returned an hour later. They were wearing diamond valises at several thousand dollars and thus saved these.

The thief gained entrance by prying open a side window. His loot consisted of a watch set with diamonds, a necklace of Egyptian rubies, a pearl sunburst, several small pieces of jewelry and a number of ostrich feathers. J. Herbe, a musician of No. 1277 Bellevue avenue, was relieved of $364 by pickpockets late Monday afternoon while in the business district. He carried the money in a purse in his hip pocket. When he took out the purse to change a $5 bill he found the thieves saw how well he was provided with cash.

The home of Gus Kroeger, at No. 551 South Main street, was entered during the absence of the family and a brooch, a pair of earrings and two gold watches taken.

WILLING WORKERS' WHIST.

The Willing Workers of Sinai Congregation will give a whist party tomorrow afternoon at the B. B. Hall, No. 52 West Pico street, for the benefit of the building fund.

HOW ROOSEVELT'S PARTY WILL BE FED IN AFRICA.

BY PETER MACQUEEN, F.R.G.S.

AS THERE is so much big game hunting in British East Africa, there is no trouble in finding a man or a firm, either at Mombasa or Nairobi, to procure all the necessary porters, tents, ammunition and food for a party going into the wilds. There are several mercantile firms which make a business of supplying hunting parties, and there are men who will take charge of everything at so much per month.

A hunting party, such as Roosevelt's, with porters and attendants, is called a caravan.

The battery for each hunter, to be sufficient for all needs, should consist of a .450 express, a .303 sporting rifle, British model, and a 12-bore shot-gun; and I should think 250 rounds of .450 (50 hard and 200 soft), 200 rounds of .303 (100 hard and 200 soft), and 200 12-bore shot cartridges of, say, the No. 6 and 7 sizes, sufficient for the three months' trip.

The hunter's kit should include a good pair of sun-bat, a couple of suits of khaki leather, a couple of pairs of puttees, wash-leather gloves to protect the hands from the sun, and two pairs of boots with hemp soles. Long Norwegian boots will also be found very useful. The usual under-clothing worn in America in the fall is all that is required, if the shooting is to be done in the highlands, as the temperature there corresponds to that of October. A good warm overcoat will be much appreciated up-country, in the cool of the evenings, and a light mackintosh for wet weather ought also to be included.

THE CARAVAN.

The caravan for one sportsman—if he intends going far from the railway—is usually made up as follows, though the exact numbers depend upon many considerations:

	Rupess per month.
One headman .....	50
One cook .....	25
One gun bearer .....	25
One "boy" (personal servant) .....	20
Two askaris (armed porters) .....	12
Thirty porters .....	10

If there are five or six men in the party, double the porters and add a gun bearer and a personal boy for each hunter. Thus if the ex-President has a party of six, he will need about seventy men altogether. This would necessitate about 150 pounds of rice a day. It is three days across to Kilimanjaro, for example.

The sportsman is obliged to provide each porter with a jersey, blanket and water bottle, while the gun bearer and "boy" get a pair of boots in addition. A cotton shelter tent and one cooking pot must also be furnished for every five men.

The food for the caravan is mostly rice, of which the headman gets three pounds per day, the cook, gun bearer, "boy" and askaris two and a quarter pounds, and the ordinary porters one and a half pounds each per day. It is the duty of the headman to keep discipline on the safari (caravan journey) both in camp and on the march, and to see to the distribution and safety of the loads, the pitching and striking of camp, the issue of rations (food) to the porters, etc. He always brings up in the rear of the caravan, and on him depends the general comfort of the sportsman.

The cook is also an important member of the caravan, and a good one should be procured if possible. It is wonderful what an experienced native m'pishi (cook) can turn out in the way of a meal in a few minutes after camp is pitched.

In camp the duties of the askaris are to keep up the fire and watch at night, and to pick and strike the caravan. They are each armed with an old snider rifle and ten rounds of ball cartridges, and are generally very dangerous men to their friends when they take it into their heads to fire their weapons.

PORTERS.

The ordinary porters will carry their sixty-pound loads day in and day out, without complaint, as long as they are well fed; but when they are tired, and they at once become sulky mutineers. In addition to carrying the loads, they pitch and strike camp, procure firewood and water, and build grass huts if a stay of more than a day is intended to be made at one place. On the whole, the Swahili porter is one of the jolliest and most willing fellows in the world, and I have nothing but praise for him from East Africa on the Voi-Kilimanjaro road, one of the first considerations in the outfit of a party of say seventy porters will be the water supply. Water will have to be carried across the Serengeti desert between Burra and the Lumi River at Taveta, a distance of fifty miles. When we crossed this Yaru, as it is called, I told one of my boys to make the water clean and he went and put soap in it to make it clean, making soap suds. There is no water at all in the Yaru.

For the White Members of the Party

A hunting party usually carries a bountiful supply of rice, which can be bought in many of the Indian stores at Mombasa. Chop-chops, containing beef, mutton, and chicken, are also so purchased at Mombasa. Among these canned goods will be found

peas, peaches and apricots from California; pickled tongues from South America; corned beef from Australia and deviled ham and chicken from Chicago. Liebig's extract of beef must be a favorite with the hunters, for I saw many of the natives, whose ear lobes are abnormally pierced, wearing a condensed milk can in one ear and a Liebig's extract of beef jar in the other; an abundant supply of condensed milk is necessary for the journey, and plenty of tea, coffee and cocoa, especially tea. With the rice one should take chutney, a hot sauce

made in India, from the mango fruit and a little of the red pepper. This chutney is said to be a great preventive of fever.

NATIVE FOOD.

When starting from large towns like

Mombasa or Nairobi, the party will carry as food for the porters, a large quantity of bananas, coconuts and long stalks of sugar cane. Some of the native tribes, like the Watawata,

the Wachagga and the Kikuyu, can live almost entirely upon a few heads

a day of common coarse maize or corn. Along the way they will purchase from native vendors round

balls resembling popcorn balls, made

from a mixture of white ants and cassava flour. This cassava flour is beaten up in mortars and is made from the cassava root, which grows in all the gardens. The natives eat these puff balls with eager voracity.

For the white travelers of the

Roosevelt expedition, there will be

plenty of chickens, which can be

bought for eight cents apiece

throughout the country. Of course, in such a party as the one President

Roosevelt will take, there will be no

want of delicious viands from antelope steak, for there are hundreds of

Grant gazelles, Thomson gazelles,

Kongoni and a variety of other

Chandler's Reed buck and the little

paas, smallest of all deer, which forms

a very toothsome mutton to the hungry hunter. The natives will eat

all the disjunct members of any of the wild game killed. They are especially fond of the entrails of the animals,

which they roast over fires without

removing ZEBRA STEAK.

Zebra steak is palatable to the white man and there are wild boars in abundance. Elephant steak looks something like corned beef, but it is very tough. The flavor is not very good.

It always reminded me of a combination of steamed cabbages and sawdust. When a band of German hunters with us last year shot over ten

tons of elephant meat in the Kiliman-

jaro region, the natives came for 200

miles, and almost every ounce of available meat was by then eagerly devoured. The natives drew the lion

at eating the dead lions, and the Mo-

hammadis, portion of the Safari will eschew the pig in all its forms. My

Swahili tent boys absolutely refused to eat anything cooked in pig lard,

when they discovered the picture of a pig on the Chicago tin.

When the ex-President starts from

Kilimanjaro for the Nandi plateau and

Elgon district, his attendants can buy

their food in the marketplace of the Kavirondo, where the natives of the shores of Lake Victoria Nymanas. The Masai will sell them curried milk in large quantities. In districts where

English farmers have settled, the white

men of the party will be able to pro-

cur good milk and butter. At Nakuru,

near the railway, in the region of the

Rift Valley, there are 500 Boer farmers, and good fresh meat is readily obtainable. The natives eat these

puff balls with eager voracity.

For the white travelers of the

Roosevelt expedition, there will be

plenty of chickens, which can be

bought for eight cents apiece

throughout the country. Of course, in such a party as the one President

The many uses of Gold Dust

If you were to use for each kind of washing, cleaning, scouring and scrubbing, one of the so-called special preparations which are made, you would have an imposing and expensive array of chemicals, washing compounds, cleaning pastes, etc.

There is one cleaner that can take the place of them all, and without the need of borax, ammonia, kerosene or naphtha, and that is Gold Dust.

expect rather elaborate presents in return. But I remember receiving a very handsome goat from Sultan Sulaiman of the Wachagga tribe, for which, at the advice of a German officer, I gave him three cans of condensed milk and a half-pound tin of Van Houten's cocoa.

TULARE.

TULARE, March 22.—Some question

has been raised as to the adequacy

of the amount proposed ($48,000) for the construction of a city sewer system. The city engineer, however, has a full statement of plans and estimates.

The horses hitched to a dray belonging to J. I. Hildon became restless

this morning while backed up to the edge of the sidewalk in front of the new hotel building, and backed the rear of the wagon into one of the large windows, breaking it to large pieces. This left the other glass without support and it fell and was also broken. The man who was driving

HAD QUIT WORK.

READY TO GIVE UP IN DESPAIR

Restored to Health By Vinol

"I was sick, run-down and finally had to give up work. After trying a number of remedies and several physicians, I was just about ready to give up in despair. I saw Vinol adver-

tized and decided to try it, and it has done more good for me than all other means combined. It has built

me up and restored my strength

until I now feel twenty years

younger, and am able to attend to my work again as usual." Job Javon, 1036

12nd street, Wheeling, W. Va.

The reason Vinol is so successful in such cases is because it contains tonic

iron and all of the strengthening

blood-making and body-building elements of cod liver oil, but no oil.

Vinol is unexcelled as a strength

creator for old people, delicate children,

weak, run-down persons, and after sickness—and is the best known remedy for coughs, colds and bronchitis.

We return your money if Vinol fails to give satisfaction.

VINOL is sold in Los Angeles by
